DID YOU KNOW?

Canada has 750 lighthouses. Some have been sold or transferred to individuals or groups.

The first lighthouse in Canada was built in Louisbourg on Cape Breton Island, Nova Scotia, in 1734. Over the years, the structure was damaged in battle, destroyed by fire and rebuilt several times. The lighthouse known today was built in 1923.

Canada's oldest surviving lighthouse was built in 1758 on Sambro Island, at the entrance to Halifax Harbour.

The Government of Canada continues to operate 51 staffed lighthouses across the country, including:

1 in New Brunswick

27 in British Columbia

23 in Newfoundland and Labrador
